[XXIVth YEAR.] THE [No. 1204.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1768.

LEGHORN, July 1.

ACCORDING to the last Letters from Corsica, the Road was marking out through which the 4000 Men were to pass, who are to be under the Command of General de Chauvelin, and an Appraisement was making out by Two French, and Two Genoese Officers, of all the Ammunition and Provisions belonging to the Republic.

Frontiers of POLAND, July 4. The Russian Troops seem at length to carry all before them. The Confederates have lost near 4000 Men by the taking of Bar. Upwards of 2000 have undergone the same Fate, by attempting to relieve the Town of Brzedeyckzew. 69 Cannons, 10 Mortars, and 6 Standards, are the Trophies of the Victors.

We are assured that Prince Repnin has received a Courier, with the News, that the first Column of the Russian Army, under the Command of General Romanzow, and which consists of 50,000 Men, is already arrived at Bialacierkiew.

July 14. Two Bodies of Russians are in March, One towards Kiovia, and the other towards Smolensko.

We have this Moment a Report of the Discovery of a Plot, for setting Fire to the City of Warsaw, in divers Places.

WARSAW, July 14. The Troubles which reign in this State, instead of diminishing, increase more and more, and present a very melancholy and terrifying Picture. The paternal Heart of the King suffers infinitely; but, by the Constitution and Form of Government, the Remedy of these Evils depends not on his Majesty alone.

The Confederates of Podolia are actually all dispersed, and their Chiefs are retired to Chocsim, a fortified Place belonging to the Grand Signior, where they live, it is said, miserably enough, having sacrificed all the Money and Jewels they were possessed of, to strengthen the Confederacy, and sustain themselves against the Russian Troops.

The Insurrection of the Peasants of the Ukraine, strikes us with Horror, on Account of the terrible Effects which have ensued. The Starosties of Czerin, of Cairhassy, and Bialacierkiew, as well as the Lordships of Hum and of Smila, have suffered extremely thereby.

General Apraxin having advanced with his Troops towards the Ukraine, hath dispersed the greatest Part of the seditious Peasants, and hath hanged a great Number of them; the rest have retired to the Haydamacks, and in their Retreat have burnt and pillaged several Towns and Villages of that Province.

A large Detachment of Prussian Hussars passed Yesterday through this City, in their Way to Podolia and the Ukraine, to take Revenge of the Peasants for having murdered several of their Comrades.

We are here in great Confusion, and under dreadful Apprehensions.

It is just now reported that the Russians are bombarding Cracow.

July 18. The News we had received of the rising of several Thousand Peasants in the Ukraine, is confirmed from several Quarters. The Excesses committed by these People, exceed all Imagination.

PARIS, July 18. Some Persons assert, that there will be immediately a sovereign Council in the Island of Corsica, composed of Ten Counsellors, Six of which are to be French, and the other Four Corsicans. By the Nomination of these latter, we hope we shall gain the Confidence and Affection of these Islanders.

LONDON.

July 14. Several Letters by the last Dutch Mail, mention the Amazement of most People on the Continent, at the Quietness, or rather Supineness of England, while France is taking Possession of the Island of Corsica.

July 15. We hear that our Minister, having lately made Representations at the French Court, about the further Demolition of Dunkirk, received for Answer, that if any more Complaints were made on that Subject, 20,000 Men should be sent to Dunkirk directly, to re-instate those Works which had been demolished.

Some Letters from Genoa mention, that a Report prevailed, that a Demand had been made to the Republic, that one of the Ports in Corsica shall be occupied by English Troops, during the Continuance of the French on that Island.

Private Letters from Berlin mention, that his Excellency Sir Andrew Mitchell, his Britannic Majesty's Ambassador, continues to hold frequent and private Conferences with the King, and great Men of the Court, said to be on Affairs of great Importance to the general Balance of Power in Europe.

July 16. We hear that Orders are given for Two Men of War to sail for the Coast of Africa, to reinforce the Ships on that Station, in Consequence, it is said, of Intelligence having been received, that Four Men of War have sailed lately from Brest for the Coast.

July 22. The Leyden Gazette, of the 5th Instant, has the following Article under the Head London, July 8. "——" The Broils, which many Persons seemed to fear, between this Crown and that of France, relative to the Island of Corsica, are imaginary. It is sufficient for us to possess Gibraltar and Minorca for the Protection of our Commerce. Corsica, without being of any Advantage to us, would cost us a great deal, and be one Place more, where in case of a War, we might be attacked. In this Light the Thing was considered, when the Corsicans formerly offered, of their own Accord, to put themselves under the Dominion of the British Crown; and it is also under this Point of View, that the Matter has been decided in the Councils lately held on this Subject.

July 25. Friday some Dispatches, of real Importance, were received at the Secretary of State's Office, from the Court of Versailles.

Six more Men of War are ordered for Boston as fast as possible, who are to take more Troops on board; Government being now determined that the Laws passed in England, respecting America, shall be observed and enforced, and their Officers protected, at all Events.

July 26. It was this Morning reported, that Orders have been sent to the Commanders of the several stationed Ships, from Newfoundland to Cape Florida, to be in readiness on the first Notice to join the Commanding Officer at Boston, in New-England.

It is said that a large Train of Artillery is ordered to be got ready at Woolwich, and shipt on board Two Transports in the River, for North-America.

It is given out, that Admiral Howe will take the Command of a considerable Squadron to be sent to North-America.

It is said that the Merchants and Manufacturers, both in Town and Country, concerned in the American Trade, are now as greatly alarmed for the Security of their Property, as before the Repeal of the late Stamp-Act.

We are informed that a Scheme is in Agitation, planned by a certain great Patriot, which will entirely reconcile the Differences at present unhappily subsisting between Great-Britain and the Colonies.

It is expected every Hour to hear of the Arrival at Boston, of the 3 Regiments, and 3 Frigates, which sailed from Cork about 2 Months since, when it is not doubted but the public Tranquility will be restored, and those that have been the Occasion of the Outrages lately committed there, will be brought to their Reason and Senses.

It was this Morning confidently reported, that several important Changes would take place in a very few Days; some of which, it is said, are, that the Duke of Bedford will be appointed First Lord of the Treasury, in the room of the Duke of Grafton, and that the Lords Chatham and Shelburne will resign.

It is said that a Plan of a certain great Minister, to prevent the French from being Masters of Corsica, and at the same Time to avoid a new War with those restless Disturbers of the Peace of Europe, is, by a secret Treaty, to engage a very Powerful Prince on the Continent to assist the Corsicans to support their Independency, and to expel their Enemies from their Country.

July 27. Friday last his Majesty's Ship Rose, sailed from St. Helen's, on her Voyage for Boston.

A Letter, dated from the Borders of the Vistula, July 10, says, "The Affairs of Poland are growing worse and worse. The Peasants of the Ukraine, or Cossacks of the Greek Religion, are taking Advantage of the present Troubles, to revenge, as they pretend, some Injuries they have received. They murder all Catholics and Jews who fall into their Hands, without sparing even Women or Children. Whole Starosties, Districts, Towns and Villages, have been already sacked and burnt. In short, the Devastation they are making is beyond all Description."

The City of Cracow (says another Letter from Poland) is so closely blocked up by the Russians, that nothing can enter it. The Garrison have turned out many Horses, after disabling them, for Want of Provender; and these being shot by the Russians, and left under the Walls, infect the Air in such a Manner as not to be endured.

Advices received from Birmingham inform, that Business at that Place is in great Stagnation, on account of the Slackness of Orders for Goods from North-America.

It is currently reported, that a considerable Remove will immediately be made among the Members of his Majesty's Council, in a certain American Province.

A Letter from Gibraltar, mentions, that the whole Day's Pay of a Subaltern Officer in the Garrison, is hardly sufficient to purchase him a single Dinner, on account of the great Advance in the Price of Provisions; but that they were in daily Hopes of the Communication with Barbary being opened again, and the Difference subsisting between the English and Moorish Ambassador amicably adjusted.

July 30. Three of the principal Officers of the Crown are expected to resign very speedily.

It is said, that if his Danish Majesty should honour Ireland with a Visit, he will be accompanied by a great Monarch, who is rather more interested in the Prosperity of that Kingdom.

Lenitive and conciliating Measures will be adopted by Government relative to our Colonies. The Report of sending 20 Sail of the Line, and 20 Regiments to North-America, is utterly void of Foundation, and seems calculated on purpose to serve the Purposes of Stock-jobbing.

As the American Wilkes cannot bear the Smell of Gunpowder, and faints away at a drawn Sword or Gunpowder, and faints away at a drawn Sword or Bayonet, it is thought that the Disputes will be ended there with much less Difficulty and Mischief than has happened in England. But the more sanguine Friends of the Bostonites, say, the next Advices will bring an Account of an Action at Boston, and another possibly at New-York.

Letters from France, mention, that there is a Prospect of the finest Harvest in that Kingdom, known for many Years past.

This Week they began to reap Wheat in Hertfordshire, Samples of which were produced Yesterday amongst the Factors; and next Week it is expected new Wheat will be brought for Sale at Ware-Market. The Samples of Grain already shewn, are extremely fine, and very full, as appears throughout the Corn Countries in general.

Wednesday last the Earl of Exeter embarked at Dover, for France; and the same Day landed at ditto, Lord Mountstuart, and the Earl of Northington, from Calais.

Thursday their Majesties went to take a View of the Apartments which are fitted up for the Reception and Accommodation of the King of Denmark, and were pleased to express the utmost Satisfaction at the Expedition that had been used, and the Elegance that had taken Place, on the Occasion.

'Tis said that the Reason why a certain general Officer has been deprived of his Government in North-America, is, that he did not choose to go over to reside there.

While some of our political Writers insist, that the original Migrators to America went thither to preserve their Liberty, while others stand at home to fight for it;——the more rational conclude, that each Party acted as they thought most conducive to their—own Advantage.

August 1. We hear that Orders are gone down to some of the Dock-Yards, for several Sloops and Frigates to be got ready to sail with the utmost Expedition (it is expected) for North-America.——It is not to be doubted but that when the late spirited Measures, taken by Government to quell tumultuous Risings, and thereby to restore Peace and good Order in the Mother-Country, are known in our Colonies, the late Insurrections, unhappily broke out among the lower and unthinking Part of the People there, will in course subside.

Some Letters from Corsica mention, that the Navigation of the neighbouring Seas is become quite secure to all Nations trading thither, by the Appearance of some English Men of War off that Place.

Fresh Advices from the Continent of America are said to be just arrived, which have already occasioned some considerable Councils at Midnight.

It was reported on Saturday Morning, on Change, that the Cannon of one of the American Forts, on the Ramparts, have been spiked up by the Populace.

It is rumoured that Two Noblemen of Distinction are going over to North-America, to enquire personally into the Grievances complained of, and on other Matters of Consequence.

We hear that nothing will be determined by the Ministry, with regard to American Affairs, which now engross the whole Attention of the Public, 'til the Sitting of the Parliament.

August 2. A Correspondent informs, that a Detachment of the M—n——y were sent last Week to consult the Oracle at Hayes, about the Measures proper to be taken with the North-Americans, at this critical Juncture, and that they had received the following oracular Answer: "You must pursue VIGOROUS Measures——with Moderation."

August 3. Some Ships of War are ordered to be got ready to sail with all Expedition to Gibraltar, in order to keep a close Look-out, for the Protection of the Streights in general, and the Island of Corsica in particular.

We hear that all the Governors, Colonels, and other principal Officers, Civil and Military, belonging to any of his Majesty's foreign Garrisons and Plantations, either in Europe, Asia, Africa, or America, will henceforth be obliged to reside upon the Spot, or throw up their Commissions.

A Letter from Volhynia, says, "The Bishop of the Greeks has been massacred by the Peasants of the Ukraine, for having given Notice to the Governor of Pawalocz, and his Lieutenant, of the Designs of the Insurgents, by which Means they got out of their Way. The Governor of Smila flew off in his Shirt, abandoning his Wife and Children to their Fury. All these Disorders (it is added) have been occasioned by the Confederats of Bar threatening to kill all the Greeks, who did not embrace the Roman Catholic Religion."

They write from Berlin, that considerable Quantities of warlike Ammunition had been sent to Magdebourg; and that his Prussian Majesty had issued Orders for all the Officers who served, during the late War, in his light Troops, to hold themselves in Readiness to take the Field.

According to Letters from Corsica, the French, who amount already to 10,000 Men, were advancing their Posts, and it seemed as the first Attack would be made at Furiani.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, July 25.

"We are informed from Corsica, that the Count de Marbeuf has caused the Genoese Arms to be taken down in the City of Bastia, and those of France to be erected instead thereof, with a Latin Inscription, by which his Majesty takes the Title of King of Corsica.

"Some Persons pretend to be assured, that there will be a Sovereign Council immediately established in Corsica, composed of Ten Members, Six of whom are to be Frenchmen, and Four Corſicans; by which latter Nomination, our Court hopes to gain the Confidence and Affection of thoſe Iſlanders, and to engage them to put themſelves, on Condition of certain Prerogatives, under the Dominion of the Crown of France."

Extract of a Letter from Legborn, July 9.

"Advices from Corſica inform, that the French Troops are amaſſing there, great Quantities of Proviſions and Ammunition, in order to take the Field; the Malecontents, on the other Hand, have reſolved not to be the firſt to act offenſively; but whenever they ſhall be attacked, they will defend their Liberty at the Price of their Lives.

"They have poſted a Corps of Obſervation at Alata, Three Miles from Ajaccio, and have drawn a Line, as well to cover Cape Corſe, as to keep up Communication with Nebbio. Two Genoeſe Feluccas, taken by the Corſicans, are carried into Centuri."

BOSTON, September 15.

By authentic Advices from London, by Captain Scott, we learn, that the Petition of our Aſſembly to his Majeſty, had not reached his Royal Ear, tho' it had been delivered to the Secretary of State for this Department. That the Houſe of Commons were divided with Reſpect to the Meaſures to be taken with America, pretty much the ſame as they were when the Repeal of the Stamp-Act was in queſtion; one Third were for enforcing the late Acts at all Events; another for a Repeal, on Condition of a previous Bill, to aſſert the Right of Parliament over America; and the other Third for a Repeal, without any Conditions; and that the Privy Council were pretty much in the ſame State. That the People at home begin to be convinced, that if the Shackles under which Trade labours, were not ſoon removed, Remittances would be ſlow and precarious; and that the Wheels of Trade would ſtop of themſelves and would ſoon be felt in the Decay of the Manufactures.

The following is a Copy of the Circular Letter, written by the Selectmen of this Town, and directed to the Selectmen of the ſeveral Towns within this Province; agreeable to a Vote at the Meeting on the 13th Inſtant.

GENTLEMEN, Boſton, Sept. 14, 1768.

YOU are already too well acquainted with the melancholy and very alarming Circumſtances to which this Province, as well as America in general, is now reduced. Taxes, equally detrimental to the commercial Intereſts of the Parent-Country and her Colonies, are impoſed upon the People, without their Conſent:——Taxes deſigned for the Support of the Civil Government in the Colonies, in a Manner clearly unconſtitutional, and contrary to that, in which, 'til of late, Government has been ſupported, by the free Gift of the People, in the American Aſſemblies or Parliaments; as alſo for the Maintenance of a large ſtanding Army; not for the Defence of the newly acquired Territories, but for the old Colonies, and in a Time of Peace. The decent, humble, and truly loyal Applications and Petitions from the Repreſentatives of this Province, for the Redreſs of theſe heavy and very threatening Grievances, have hitherto been ineffectual, being aſſured, from authentic Intelligence, that they have not yet reached the Royal Ear. The only Effect of tranſmitting theſe Applications hitherto perceivable, has been a Mandate from one of his Majeſty's Secretaries of State to the Governor of this Province, to diſſolve the General Aſſembly, merely becauſe the late Houſe of Repreſentatives refuſed to reſcind a Reſolution of a former Houſe, which implied nothing more than a Right in the American Subjects to unite in humble and dutiful Petitions to their gracious Sovereign, when they found themſelves aggrieved: This is a Right naturally inherent in every Man, and expreſly recognized at the glorious Revolution, as the Birthright of an Engliſhman.

This Diſſolution you are ſenſible has taken Place; the Governor has publicly and repeatedly declared that he cannot call another Aſſembly; and the Secretary of State for the American Department, in one of his Letters communicated to the late Houſe, has been pleaſed to ſay, that "proper Care ſhall be taken for the Support of the Dignity of Government;" the Meaning of which, is too plain to be miſunderſtood.

The Concern and Perplexity into which theſe Things have thrown the People, have been greatly aggravated, by a late Declaration of his Excellency Governor Bernard, that one or more Regiments may ſoon be expected in this Province.

The Deſign of theſe Troops is, in every one's Apprehenſion, nothing ſhort of enforcing, by military Power, the Execution of Acts of Parliament, in the forming of which, the Colonies have not, and cannot have, any conſtitutional Influence. This is one of the greateſt Diſtreſſes to which a free People can be reduced.

The Town which we have the honour to ſerve, have taken theſe Things at their late Meeting into their moſt ſerious Conſideration: And as there is in the Minds of many, a prevailing Apprehenſion of an approaching War with France, they have paſſed the ſeveral Votes, which we tranſmit to you; deſiring that they may be immediately laid before the Town, whoſe Prudentials are in your Care, at a legal Meeting, for their candid and particular Attention.

Deprived of the Councils of a General Aſſembly in this dark and difficult Seaſon, the loyal People of this Province will, we are perſuaded, immediately perceive the Propriety and Utility of the propoſed Committee of Convention: And the ſound and wholeſome Advice that may be expected from a Number of Gentlemen choſen by themſelves, and in whom they may repoſe the greateſt Confidence, muſt tend to the real Service of our gracious Sovereign, and the Welfare of his Subjects in this Province; and may happily prevent any ſudden and unconnected Meaſures, which, in their preſent Anxiety, and even Agony of Mind, they may be in danger of falling into.

As it is of Importance that the Convention ſhould meet as ſoon as may be, ſo early a Day as the 22d of this Inſtant, September, has been propoſed for that Purpoſe——and it is hoped the remoteſt Towns will, by that Time, or ſoon after, as conveniently may be, return their reſpective Committees.

Not doubting but that you are equally concerned with us, and our Fellow-Citizens, for the Preſervation of our invaluable Rights, and for the general Happineſs of our Country, and that you are diſpoſed with equal Ardor to exert yourſelves in every Conſtitutional Way for ſo glorious a Purpoſe, we are,

Gentlemen, with the greateſt Eſteem,
Your obedient humble Servants.

Signed by the Selectmen of Boſton.

ANNAPOLIS, October 6.

On Monday laſt came to this City, from the Northward, his Excellency Lord Charles Greville Montague, Governor of South-Carolina, and his Lady; and Yeſterday ſet off for Virginia.

On Sunday laſt arrived here, after a tedious Paſſage, the Ship Brandon, Capt. Nimmo, from London.—About 500 Leagues from the Land, ſhe met with a very hard Gale of Wind, which carried away all her Maſts and Bowſprit. She had been on her Beam-Ends, for ſome Hours, before ſhe met with the above Accident.

Lately died at Newport, in Rhode-Iſland, after a tedious and lingering Indiſpoſition, which he bore with ſingular Fortitude and Reſignation, JAMES M'LACHLAN, Eſq; late of Kent County, in this Province. He invariably diſcharged the Duties of an upright and active Magiſtrate. He was a ſteady and faithful Friend, a polite Scholar, an entertaining and inſtructive Companion, a mild and humane Maſter, and a moſt excellent Neighbour. His Firmneſs, under the Loſſes and Difficulties he frequently met with in Trade, was conſpicuous, and well worthy Imitation. Inſtead of depreſſing his Spirits, they added Vigour to his Aſſiduity, and never tempted him to commit an illiberal Act. He lived beloved, and died univerſally lamented by all who had the Pleaſure of his Acquaintance.

It is better for one Man ſteal a Horſe, than another look over an Hedge.——

Mr. GREEN,

IN the 20th Line of Mr. Allen's Introduction to his Sermon there is a full Stop put inſtead of a Comma, which renders the Sentence imperfect: As a Criticiſm of this Kind is entirely upon a Level with the Capacity of his Opponent, I ſuppoſe it will be taken Notice of——and this will be as full a Proof of his not being able to write Engliſh, as thoſe already produced are of his Immoralities. A CRITIC.

 Whenever our Critic ſhall think proper to ſend any Piece for the Preſs, we hope he will point it properly, as we ſhall be very particular in following his Copy.

By particular Deſire, we inſert the following Piece, from the Pennſylvania Chronicle, No. 89.

Mr. GODDARD,

IF it be hard, extremely hard, as Amicus ſays, that People uſed to go to the other Side of the Water, to ſearch for the Author of every anonymous Production that appeared, it is not leſs hard, that they now go on the other Side of the Line, eſpecially if there happens to be a Rhyme tagged to the End of a Line—not conſidering, that fly Fellows lie perdue, ſcribbling on every Side the Queſtion, writing unpopular Pieces, and fixing them on their Opponents, to ruin their Intereſt.—This ſeems to be really the Caſe, in the ſeveral Pieces that have lately appeared, turning the ingenious Farmer into Ridicule, and remarkably in the Verſification of the laſt Addreſs of the Grand-Jury of Cecil County, in Maryland, which was written leſs with a View of ridiculing either thoſe Gentlemen or the Farmer, than with a Deſign of injuring a certain Perſon, in the Opinion of thoſe Gentlemen, and of the Province in general, to whom the Compoſition was immediately attributed by the Author himſelf as ſoon as written—and I think his Wit a poor Apology for the badneſs of the Intention—no Man has a right to charge another with the Authorſhip of an anonymous Piece; and the real Author's diſclaiming it, is a Proof that he diſapproves it—And the Deception, Style, Manner and Argument is infinite—It were therefore to be wiſhed, that whilſt it is allowed, that there is ſome Merit on the other Side of the Water, it may not be altogether denied, that there is ſome Virtue on the other Side of the Line.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 24, 1768. A CITIZEN.

AS the Partnerſhip between Meroney and Selby, late Saddlers in Annapolis, is now broke off, and the Subſcriber has aſſumed the Payment of all the Debts contracted by the ſaid Company, before the Diſſolution thereof: This is therefore to deſire all Perſons who are any wiſe indebted to either of them, to pay off, immediately, to the ſaid Selby, (who only has a Right to receive the ſame) their reſpective Balances; and ſuch as have Claims againſt the ſaid Company, are deſired to produce the ſame, in order that they may be ſettled.

 Said Selby informs all Gentlemen, and others, that he carries on the above Buſineſs in all its Branches, at their late Shop, where he expects a Continuance of their Commands; to merit which, he will aſſiduouſly endeavour to perform their Orders, in the neateſt Manner, and with the utmoſt Diſpatch. JOSEPH SELBY.

THE Subſcriber once more requeſts, that thoſe indebted to the Eſtate of Doctor John Hamilton, late of Calvert County, would make immediate Payment; and for the greater Eaſe of thoſe, who live too remote, he takes this Method of informing them, that he ſhall give Attendance at the next Meeting of St. Mary's, Charles, and Prince-George's County Courts, and begs he may not be put to the diſagreeable Neceſſity of diſtreſſing thoſe who ſeem careleſs about Payment, which ſhall moſt certainly be the Conſequence, if they ſtill continue regardleſs of the above Requeſt.

THE Subſcriber's ill State of Health having obliged him to decline his Buſineſs of Barber and Peruke-Maker, in favour of Mr. JAMES REID, my late Servant, and having removed to London-Town to live, it would be very inconvenient for me, on that Account, to collect my Debts, many of which are long ſtanding; therefore, I do hereby deſire all Perſons, who are any wiſe indebted to me, to ſettle with the ſaid JAMES REID, whoſe Receipt ſhall be good againſt the Subſcriber: And, as I have already ſuffered much, by my too great Lenity, I am determined to bring Suits againſt all thoſe who do not immediately comply with this Requeſt, which will be very diſagreeable to

I HAVE a Parcel of Land lying in Charles County, on the Bank of Patowmack River, at the noted Harbour, called Nanjemoy, which is thought to be a handſome and convenient Place for a Town. I do therefore purpoſe to leaſe out the ſame, for the Term of Ninety Years, in Lots, or Half Acres, to be called ELVIRA. The Lots are to be rented to the higheſt Bidder, but the firſt Bid for each Lot, ſhall not be leſs than Fifty Shillings Currency. The Rules and Regulations, (for the Good of the whole) under which the Tenants are to live, and the particular Methods, Terms, and Conditions, under which they are to hold their Leaſes, being too tedious to inſert in this Advertiſement, will be ſet forth at large, in one general Leaſe, or Charter, to be ſeen by all Perſons concerned therein, on, or before the Day of Conveyance. All Perſons inclined to become Tenants of ſaid Town, are deſired to ſend in their Names to me, at Nanjemoy, that, as ſoon there is a ſufficient Number made up, I may proceed to lay out the Lots in the moſt convenient Manner I can. Virginia, June 20, 1768.

THE Earl of Tankerville's Concurrence being now had, and in the Country, to the Purchases I sometime ago made of his Agents, in Virginia, so that Deeds can be had to the Part thereof, in Frederick County, Maryland, I propose again to dispose off, which prevented its being done when formerly advertised, I now give Notice to all Persons, inclinable to purchase the Whole, or any Part thereof, that it is now on Sale, and can be completed, for which Purpose I will attend at the next August Frederick County Court, (which begins on the Third Tuesday in August) at the House of Mr. Charleton, ready to treat with any Person inclinable to purchase it. It is a Tract of choice good Land, remarkably suitable for Farming and Plantation Business, and very commodiously situate for Trade, being not far from Frederick-Town, and the Advantage of Navigation on Potowmack River, the usual Landing the Boats now carry from, being upon the Land. It is well watered, and has great Quantities of Meadow Ground interspersed amongst it. It contains between Six and Seven Thousand Acres, and is usually known by the Name of COLVILE'S TRACT, called MERRY-LAND. Any Person, who, in the Interim, wants to view or treat for it, may apply to Messrs. John Carrey, Merchant, in Frederick-Town, or Frances Hamilton, at Keep-Triste Furnace, who have Power and Directions to treat for it, or to the Subscriber himself, at Occoquan Forges. It being mostly fine tendable Land, would make a good Settlement for a Number of People wanting to remove and seat themselves in one Neighbourhood. If there was more of them than the Tract could commodiously serve, the Subscriber has 16000 Acres of Land, equally good, on the opposite Side of Potowmack, which will be soon settled out: It is almost adjoining the above Tract, excepting the Separation by the River, on which they might seat themselves contiguous to one another. Should not Purchasers offer soon for it, to the Subscriber's Liking, it will be leased out to good Farmers, there having been many Applications made for it, in that Way, and which can be let out at a very great Rent. Those who formerly applied to purchase, and still incline to do so, on giving Notice, in Time, will have Preference given them.
